

Joe Calleja

Class of 1968

‘Community Service’

Since 1982 Joe has been a qualified social worker employed in child protection, family support, juvenile justice, family relationship counselling and mental health. In 2005 he was the Chief Executive Officer of the Richmond Fellowship of WA introducing the Hearing Voices Network into Australia from Europe.

Paul Rosair

Class of 1971

‘Professional’

Paul was the Director General of the Department of Regional Development and Lands (WA), holding the position since its establishment in 2009. He has worked for over 40 years across the government sector in the portfolios of environment, water, land management, indigenous capacity building, corporate services and natural resources management. He was recognised as the Inaugural 2012 ‘Leader of the Year’ in State and Federal government in WA.

Jennifer Handz

Class of 1980

‘Professional’

Jennifer has been a partner and Managing Director of a New York based law firm specialising in banking, finance restructuring and specialist corporate work in London and Moscow. She was the in-house Senior Counsel at the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development in London. Jennifer is a partner in Banking and Finance at Lavan Legal.

Matthew Coniglio

Class of 1991

'Professional'

Matthew established his own architectural practice in 2001.

His business has won numerous state, and national architectural awards and has gained recognition and exposure for work completed internationally.

Among his awards is the 2012

Australian Institute of Architects National Award for Small Project Architecture for the Perth Cultural Centre Amenities.

Jessica Gomes

Class of 2001

‘Professional’

Jessica is an internationally renowned supermodel, Fashion Ambassador for David Jones, Face of Estee Lauder’s Sean John fragrance and spokesperson for Korean conglomerates LG Electronics and Hyundai. She has been featured in numerous high profile magazines, including Harper’s Bazaar and Australian Vogue and was the Maxim Cover Girl for November 2011.

Jonathan Staynor

Class of 2007

‘Sporting’

Jonathan has represented Australia in Karate at the Oceania Championships in New Caledonia and New Zealand; Copenhagen, British and Frankfurt Open, Premier League Jakarta, Premier League tournament in Okinawa and Pilsen Open where he won a silver medal and achieved a world ranking of 15. He has achieved second place at the Australian Karate Open Championships for 2013 and 2014 and is the 2014 State Champion of WA.